City of Dallas OFFICE MEMORANDUM

To Captain W. P. Gannaway

November 23, 1963

Subject Virgie Nac Rackley, W/F/18
405 Wood St., Ferris, Texas
Telephone number 544 - 3627
Employee of: Texas Schoolbook
Denository

Sir:

At 12:00 moon this date we interviewed the SUBJECT who has been an employee of the Torms Schoolbook Depository for six months and works in the book keeping department for doc 1011ms.

The SUBJECT states she does not know, Lee Harver Cowald, and has never seen him. She stated that when she saw Cowald on TV and pictures of him in the pupor she did not recognize him as an employee of the building where she works.

During the interview we maked her if she had any empiricions of any of the employees the worked with. Bor intede, "mo? After a few moments she stated, "it may sound silly and I shouldn't say saything at all, but my boos, Joe Polina, has had a maker of strongs telephone conversations." Delina, but had a maker of strongs telephone conversations, containing about he ten going to help consone "do it ". I shouldn't sumpicion Joe because he is a very religious man and a very fine num."

Nowember 22, 1953, at 12:00 noon, bee inline ate launch with the SUBJECT and two other cmploques of their department. This was an unusual cocurrence, He usually ate launch by thisself after 12:39 F.H. or 1:00 F.H. After launch on the 22nd inline used out seed and stood on the steps to the estrames of the launch of the state of the launch of the state of

We asked the SUBJECT if scmeone tried to recruit her for some organization, what build she do. She stated, "I definitely would not join", We then asked her, if the Police asked her to go along what would she do. She stated, "I would do anything I could do to help".

The SUBJECT stated the only employee that she know of who did not watch the parade was a Frs. Hince, frm. Frs Hince volunteered to enswer the telephone and was the only employee known to the SUBJECT to be in the building at the time of the shooting.

Respectfully submitted,
T. O. Trotran, Patrolman
I. F. Shelton, Patrolman
Vice Section
Special Service Bureau